

JAIL SENTENCE FOR CHARLES MANLEY

FATHER ACCUSED OF MISTREATING DAUGHTER GIVEN INDETERMINATE SENTENCE IN SAN QUENTIN.

Charles Manley, pipe fitter, formerly employed at the Pacific Coast Steel Mill, on Friday last pleaded guilty to the charge of mistreating his 12-year-old daughter, and was sentenced Monday morning by Judge Buck to serve an indeterminate sentence at San Quentin.

Manley, when first arraigned, pleaded not guilty, and a jury was impaneled to try his case. After the jury box had been filled, Manley changed his plea to guilty.

As he stood before the crowded court room and admitted his guilt, he wavered a moment and then fell to his chair, sobbing heavily. His wife, Rose Manley, persistently maintained that the charge was unfounded and had been trumped up by one of the older married sisters.

It is believed that Manley was prompted to change his plea after he had heard District Attorney Franklin Swart's opening address to the jury just before the noon recess, in which the later showed conclusively that he had built up such a strong case against Manley that it was impossible for the prisoner to escape conviction.

The Manley family lived at San Bruno, where they located about a year ago when they came from Idaho.

U. S. GOING AFTER STEEL BUSINESS

BRITISH INTERESTS WORRIED OVER EXPORT STEEL TRADE SITUATION.

The British trade interests are fast becoming alarmed at the outlook for their export steel trade, according to advices from London, and that America is figured as a formidable competitor in this field has recently been developed from meetings of the Coal Mines Commission, to which have been invited representative steel and iron producers in order that their testimony may be recorded. Around all the discussions which have thus far been recorded there is woven the opinion that the United States is much more advantageously situated from a trade point of view, and that unless something is soon done to restore England's former prestige the situation will gradually become worse.

LADIES' NIGHT

The popularity of ladies' night at the Steel Workers' Club was attested on Friday evening last, when members of the fair sex were once again admitted to the club rooms after several weeks' suspension of that feature of the club's activities.

A pleasant surprise awaited the visiting ladies. The management had provided facilities for dancing, in addition to cards, pool, billiards and other forms of amusement previously available.

The large room was well filled and many of the visitors and club members found the evening so enjoyable that they regretfully noticed the approach of midnight when they adjourned to their respective homes.

Regular ladies' night Friday of each week have been resumed. No invitations are required, the club rooms being open each Friday evening after 8 to ladies and their escorts.

SIX MONTHS' TIME ON VICTORY LOAN

FIFTH LOAN OFFERED ON MORE LIBERAL TERMS THAN ANY PREVIOUS ISSUE.

San Francisco, April 11.—Victory Liberty Loan bonds will be in the same denominations as those of the previous loans. There will be $50 and $100 bonds as formerly, and the most liberal terms ever offered by the government have been given. Six months' time is permitted to complete payments.

These facts are contained in a letter which is being sent to all the county chairmen in Northern California by Carey S. Hill, Northern California campaign manager. Special attention is called to these two points in order to correct the impression, which has gained some headway, that this is to be a "rich man's" loan.

"There has unfortunately been considerable comment to the effect that the Victory Liberty Loan would be subscribed by the banks rather than by the people," says Hill. "This is incorrect and it would affect business in an extremely adverse manner if it were so handled."

Payments on the new loan, as provided in the government plan, will be as follows:

Ten per cent on or before May 10.
Ten per cent on or before July 15.
Twenty per cent on or before August 12.
Twenty per cent on or before September 9.
Twenty per cent on or before October 7.
Twenty per cent on or before November 11.

NEW CHIEF OPERATOR AT TELEPHONE OFFICE

Miss Rose Gouvens, newly appointed chief operator of the local telephone exchange, whose home is in Millbrae, has been in charge of the office here for the past two weeks and brings to her work two years' experience as operator at the main office of the telephone company at 333 Grant avenue, San Francisco.

TRUSTEES WILL HOLD SPECIAL MEETING MONDAY

MATTERS OF MINOR IMPORTANCE DISPOSED OF AT REGULAR SESSION THIS WEEK.

Minor matters engaged the City Trustees at their regular meeting on Monday last.

A resolution appointing John Skrine, superintendent of the California Iron Yards, a deputy city marshal, was adopted.

Fire Chief Ben H. Truax reported to the board that two fire hydrants on Grand avenue were defective. They will be replaced with double hydrants to insure greater fire protection. They are located in front of Dick Setter's saloon and opposite the Grammar School.

The plumbing ordinance was given its second reading.

The road at Baden station and the approach to the bridge will be repaired.

Chairman Holston, with the unanimous assent of the board, called a special meeting for 7:30 p. m. Monday, April 14, when City Engineer George Kneese will submit plans of proposed road repair and city street paving work.

LOCAL BOYS NAMED IN OVERSEAS PAPER

COPY OF "HERE AND THERE," PUBLISHED BY 31ST INFANTRY, REACHES THIS CITY.

A copy of "Here and There," a newspaper published by the Thirty-first U. S. Infantry Regiment, now stationed in Siberia, has reached this city and contains many items of interest.

The publication makes announcement of two marriages of officers of the regiment, Lieutenant Richard J. Cryer to Miss Claudia Lecina, on February 15, and Lieutenant William Jacob Kingman to Miss Tamara Nicholaevna Eodko, on February 21. Local interest is added to these nuptials by the fact that Lieutenant David G. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin of this city, was present at both ceremonies.

There is a wide difference in the marriage ceremonies of the Greek Church and that of the majority of American denominations. In the former the mother of the bride remains at home and weeps during the wedding ceremony, while through the entire service, which lasts nearly two hours, crowns are held over the heads of the bride and groom.

The publication is interspersed throughout with clever cartoons by Baxter, who is a nephew of E. C. Peck of this city.

The paper has no regular publication date, but is issued as the exigencies of troop movement orders permits, which is "Every once in a while, wherever we happen to be." It is well edited and its columns contain many good newspaper yarns, humorous columns, worth-while serious poems and amusing rhymes. Its announced purpose is "The entertainment of the command."

W. J. Martin, manager of the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company, was in Sacramento Thursday on business.

A party of intimate friends gathered at the Peck home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Peck's birthday.

WATCH 'EM FLY

Major Kenneth Marr, winner of the Croix de Guerre and famous ace, on Wednesday examined landing fields in San Francisco and San Mateo counties to select a suitable landing field for the flyers of the flying circus which will stage daring air battles Saturday afternoon as the first feature stunt of the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. Major Marr chose Tanforan as the only possible field for the flyers.

A large area is needed for landing by the speedy Spads and Fokkers which will be used in the circus. These machines require a clear runway of several hundred yards for landing. Three other sites considered—the Marina, the old racetrack at the Presidio and the Park Stadium—were turned down as being too small, except for the heavier machines.

The seventeen machines, including German Fokkers, Spads, Curtiss and French planes, will start from Tanforan at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and after acrobatic exhibitions a mimic battle in the air will be staged.

DELAY GRANTED IN REED MURDER CASE

DR. NORTHCOTT'S ATTORNEY SECURES POSTPONEMENT OF CASE UNTIL MONDAY.

Hundreds of persons gathered from all parts of the peninsula to attend the hearing of Dr. Ephraim Northcott, charged with the murder of Miss Inez Reed, army nurse, were doomed to disappointment Wednesday morning when Justice of the Peace S. J. Fisher of San Mateo granted the motion of the accused physician's attorneys, J. R. Cunningham and H. H. McPike, for a continuance to Monday. The motion for the continuance was granted over the objections of District Attorney Franklin Swart, appearing for the prosecution.

The assembly hall in the city hall at San Mateo, where the case was opened Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, was crowded with men and women long before court was called to order. Every seat in the spacious room was filled and standing room was at a premium when Judge Fisher took his seat. Sprinkled throughout the crowd were fashionably dressed women from San Mateo and the peninsula, who were attracted to what promises to be one of the most sensational criminal cases tried in this county in years.

Dr. Northcott was brought to San Mateo in an automobile from Redwood City by Sheriff Michael Sheehan and Under Sheriff H. W. Lampkin. He was not handcuffed.

Before the calling of the case, District Attorney Swart was prepared to call Mrs. Evelyn Stevens, sister of the murdered nurse, as the State's witness. As soon as Judge Fisher called the case, Attorney Cunningham jumped to his feet and moved for a continuance. He said he had not had sufficient time to prepare his defense and asked that the case go over until next Tuesday. District Attorney Swart opposed the motion most strenuously, arguing that all of the witnesses were assembled there for the hearing. Justice Fisher replied that the rights of the defendant must be safeguarded and ruled that the continuance be allowed. When District Attorney

HUNTERS POINT BILL GIVEN APPROVAL

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS ITS PASSAGE; $25,000 APPROPRIATION DEEMED SUFFICIENT.

The Finance Committee of the State Senate on Thursday placed its approval on the Hunters Point bill and recommended its passage by the Senate and Assembly when it comes up for final vote of the legislative bodies. The appropriation of $50,000 originally asked was reduced to $25,000, but it is the opinion of the sponsors of the project that by strict economy this amount can be stretched out to accomplish the initial survey and investigation work for which the appropriation was asked.

Marked with the recommendation "Do pass," the bill will probably go to the Senate on Monday, and if favorably voted on will be acted on by the Assembly about Thursday next.

The Hunters Point bill, known as Senate bill No. 105, has for its purpose the reclamation of the waste lands adjoining Hunters Point and the leveling of that promontory. Excellent deep-water facilities for ocean-going steamers will be available and large docks and warehouses built to attract the commerce of the Seven Seas to the city of San Francisco and its peninsula.

The recommendation of the Senate Finance Committee practically insures the passage of the bill through the Senate and Assembly.

M. A. GREEN NOW EDITING BUSINESS HOUSE ORGAN

Maurice A. Green, former editor of The Enterprise and for a number of years staff correspondent for the San Francisco Examiner, covering San Mateo county, is now connected with Neustadter Bros. in San Francisco, where he is creating a semi-publicity organ for the concern. It will be known as the "Watch-Dog," and will be issued every two weeks.

Miss Viola Hein, Miss Rue Clifford, Miss Mabel McColm and Miss Carmen Miller attended the Saturday evening performance of "Going Up" at the Columbia Theatre.

Swart pointed out that Dr. Chidester, who performed the autopsy on Miss Reed's body, would be away on Tuesday, by consent of both sides Monday was fixed as the time for opening the hearing.

From the vigor of the arguments of Attorneys Cunningham and McPike, it is very apparent that the defense is determined to secure the doctor's dismissal at the preliminary hearing and thus save him from a jury trial in the Superior Court.

Despite the efforts of the detectives Tuesday, Mrs. Frances Cronin, Dr. Northcott's office nurse, could not be located to be served with a subpoena and was not present in court Wednesday. Miss Kathryn Fisher, the trained nurse, who stated to the police that Dr. Northcott admitted to her that he performed the illegal operation resulting in Miss Reed's death, was in the court room, as was also Policeman Allen B. Noreen, who admitted that he spent several nights with Dr. Northcott's office nurse, Mrs. Cronin, in the "death house" at 615 Highland avenue, San Mateo.

WILD MAN ROAMS COLORADO WOODS

Defies Whole Power of United States to Come and Get Him.

NEVER HEARD OF WAR

For Forty Years This Shaggy, Filthy Specimen of Humanity Has Lived Life of Recluse Because of Love Affair.

Denver, Colo.—A real, dyed-in-the-wool wild man, who hadn't heard of the war and has lived on the highest mountain peak near Pagosa Springs for 40 years, has been discovered. He is no back-to-nature freak or summer resort hermit, but a genuine shaggy, filthy specimen of humanity whose first action when discovered by a United States marshal was to tell that individual to go to a warmer climate. He followed it up by hurling a defy-full in the face of these United States to come and get him for running horses on government land without permission, declaring he was just itching for a fight. As the wild man, whose name is William Hardick and whose age is given as seventy-five, is being sued in the federal courts in a civil action, it is doubtful if he can be arrested.

Knew Nothing of War.

When the marshal gently reminded him that one Willie Hohenzollern had once remarked he would stand no nonsense from the United States, and pointed out that said Willie is now a fugitive in Holland, the wild man admitted that he had never heard of either Willie or Holland. The marshal sarcastically inquired if he knew there had been a war on with Germany. The wild man responded he wasn't sure whether Germany was a tooth wash or a disease, but that anyway he had never heard of the war.

"Happy man," murmured the marshal enviously, although he carried out his stern duty of serving the wild one with a subpoena to appear in the United States district court as defendant in an action to recover a grazing fee of a trifling amount.

Hardick was tracked to his cave in the mountains by the marshal, assisted by "Denver" Latham, a rancher who lives eleven miles from the recluse and was the only one who had ever seen him.

In Wild Animal Den.

There was no pathway to his refuge, which was formerly the den of wild animals, nor a mat with a "welcome" sign to greet the invaders. Hardick met them with the business end of a heavy rifle pointed in their direction and asked what they wanted. The arm of the law assured him their mission was peaceable, but the wild one recognized Latham and lowered his gun. His matted hair and beard would have given a barber heart failure, while the color of his skin showed that he and water had not been on friendly terms for many a moon.

Questioned by Latham, the caveman said he managed to get ammunition for his rifle "some way" and that he never lacked for food except one winter five years ago when he descended to Latham's ranch and begged a hand-out.

"CLOSE UPS" OF THE MOVIE FOLKS

STORIES AND INCIDENTS OF WELL-KNOWN FILM FAVORITES AND THEIR FOIBLES.

Dorothy Gish's handsome young leading man, Richard Barthelmess, is in trouble. In other words, he has been buying a car. At lunch recently Miss Gish asked him:

"Mr. Barthelmess, what is your car, a Cadillac or a Chandler?"

"Neither," answered the h. y. l. m., "it's a conspiracy."

Burton Holmes introduces us, in his current Travelogue, to cabarets of old Japan. A ladies' orchestra seems to be the popular agency for the dispensing of music in these cabarets, although Mr. Holmes gives assurances that the Travelogue patron is lucky that he cannot hear it.

Still we have heard music in American cabarets which made us wish we were deaf.

The house of Gish resounded with loud and joyous song. The music came from Dorothy's maid, who had a letter stating that her sweetheart was on his way from France, his regiment having been demobilized.

Then ecstasy turned into sorrow and the house resumed a fair degree of silence. The maid looked sad and woebegone.

"What's the matter, Jessie?" asked the Little Disturber. "Are you ill?"

"No, miss," replied the maid. "I got another letter from George and he says it will be a month before he gets demoralized."

As a matter of encouragement to aspiring scenario writers, it may be remarked that C. Gardner Sullivan was formerly a newspaper man, John Lynch a theatre manager, Julien Josephson a shoe salesman, R. Cecil Smith an automobile salesman, and so on.

Sailor Son Comes Home.

Mr. E. A. D. Parker, of Concordia, Kan., received a visit one night from his son, Lieut. Commander C. F. Parker, being the second visit in the last twenty-five years. At the age of 12 years this son went to sea. For some years before the war he was sailing on the Pacific, and has been captain of the ship Rose City. Last summer he was transferred from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and became captain of the West Mount. Just recently he was again transferred to the Pacific ocean and made commander in the naval reserve.

Good Printing

THE kind of printing that pays dividends is the kind you should have. Pale, muddy, poorly arranged printed matter is worse than none. The quality of your business is often judged by the quality of your stationery—inferior printing gives an impression of cheapness that is hard to overcome, while good printing carries with it a desirable suggestion of quality.

We produce only Quality Printing. Whether you want an inexpensive handbill or a letterhead in colors, if you order it from us you will be sure of getting good work. We have the equipment and the "know how" that enables us to get out really good printing—printing that impresses people with the good taste of its users. That is the only kind of printing that

Specially Good Cast for Vivian Martin in "A Petticoat Pilot"

VIVIAN MARTIN in "A Petticoat Pilot"
A Paramount Picture

Vivian Martin, who is to star in "A Petticoat Pilot," the new Paramount photoplay by Joseph C. Lincoln, at the Royal Theatre on Thursday, was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, about twenty years ago. She has been appearing on the stage more or less all her life, having begun at the tender age of 6, when she played with Richard Mansfield in the celebrated French play, "Cyrano de Bergerac," by Rostand.

Miss Martin continued her work along juvenile lines with Andrew Mack and Charles Warner, later playing the title role in "Peter Pan." Other plays in which Miss Martin appeared, and in which she rose to the heights of success, were: "Father and the Boys," "The Spendthrift," "Officer 666," "Stop Thief," "The Only Son," and others. Miss Martin naturally attracted the attention of the motion picture magnates, ever on the lookout for new "discoveries," and received numerous attractive offers.

At present Miss Martin is fulfilling a long-term contract with the Paramount company, for which she has appeared in many well-known and popular pictures, such as "The Wax Model," "Forbidden Paths," "A Kiss for Susie," "The Sunset Trail," "Molly Entangled" and "The Fair Barbarian."

The latter, a whimsical humorous comedy-drama, was especially successful, and for that reason "A Petticoat Pilot," also a comedy-drama and abounding in humorous touches, was chosen to follow it. "A Petticoat Pilot," the story of a daughter of Cape Cod and two grim old ex-sea captains, is one of the best of its distinguished author's works, which include such well-known novels as "Capt'n Eri," "The Depot Master," "Woman Haters," and others.

During the course of "A Petticoat Pilot," Miss Martin, famed for her pretty frocks, has occasion to grow from ginghamed pigtails to daintiest frocks of Georgette, and her gowns in the second part of her picture will delight the feminine contingent of her audiences. Theodore Roberts as Captain Shad gives a remarkable impersonation, while James Neill, Harrison Ford, Helen Gilmore and Jane Wolff, as well as the other members of the cast, have added not a little by their careful character study of the parts they portray.

The Finance of the Soviet

There is a temptation to use baby-talk in contradicting propagandists of a certain type. Even in words of one syllable there is little hope of conveying a meaning that will be understood. Self-evident truths that should need no expression at all will hardly commend themselves through the medium of any kind of language to those who have not yet recognized their obviousness.

Here is one. A dollar is of no value except by virtue of the government's guarantee behind it. Make that guarantee untrustworthy, and the dollar is useless. No one will accept it in exchange for goods.

You can't eat a dollar. You can't make a shirt of it. You can't put it into your victrola and make it play a tune.

Put a dollar between two slices of bread and masticate it. It makes a poor substitute for a ham sandwich costing one-tenth of that sum.

And yet the soviet government of Russia has been printing paper money at the rate of 200,000 rubles a day for some comic reason not yet revealed. It advanced 96,000,000 rubles to the Putiloff works, one of Russia's greatest factories, where 66,000,000 rubles were spent in wages in a period during which the total output was valued at less than a quarter of that amount. Paper rubles lie around everywhere like discarded street car transfers—but no pies are being baked, no shoes are being made, no talking machine records, no movie films, no chewing gum or candy. Only money.

Many a bum in Russia has plenty of cash, but he is a trifle shy on chow. The ruble has depreciated 95 per cent in the interior of the country, and a farmer would rather eat his produce or feed it to his livestock than exchange it for currency that will not buy anything.

They have been at it for a year and a half now, and the above conditions, described by the unprejudiced Socialist Kautsky, who has nothing to gain by exaggeration, are the result.

And yet there are cranks who want to try it in America.

Liberty Loans and Conservatism

The events of the last four years have shaken the foundation of social structures. So say the lecturers.

They are right, in the main. But the final result may be increased stability.

The Liberty loans have made bondholders of nearly everybody. So much money has been invested that industrial corporations in need of money have been compelled to issue bonds in hundred-dollar denominations. Baby bonds at 6 and 7 per cent have been offered by automobile and packing concerns and utilities of various kinds. And small investors are grabbing all they can. Watch them line up when new issues go on sale.

Tinkers, tailors and truck-drivers are gradually becoming the mortgagees of the big corporations. Billion-dollar debts are held by millions of bricklayers, carpenters and plasterers. And it is perfectly safe money.

Here is the strongest bulwark against bolshevism. The masses will hardly want to wreck industrial enterprises of which they are themselves the creditors.

When a smart man does not succeed it is because he lacks courage or cleverness. Many men invent things of paramount good, only to be outwitted by some other who has the capital and the brains to get it away from the originator. There should be a patent for Originality—a method of protecting the less moneyed brain from the clutches of the silver-domed capitalist who always keeps open port for the untiring labors of other beings.

Living anywhere in Europe now must be about as safe and comfortable as residing near the crater of a volcano or sitting on the safety valve of one of the old Mississippi river steamboats.

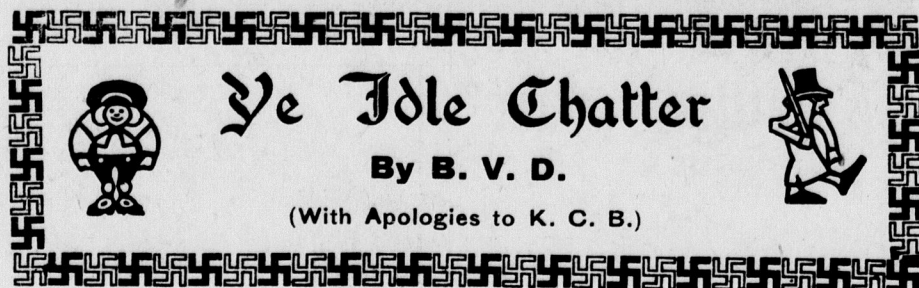

It must take all the silk mills in Europe to manufacture the quantities of white-silk-embroidered souvenir pillows and handkerchiefs that the boys are bringing home.

The peace conference has a great way of finishing what it has begun. When the news came that Hungary had gone bolshevik it was discussing the German transatlantic cables, and it took two hours more to finish with that subject and turn its attention to Hungary.

Now Germany is instructing the peace conference as to what sort of peace treaty she will sign. Who won the war?

We do not hear anything from Von Gott. Can it be possible that he was lost in the shuffle?

Virtue is said to be its own reward. Cheerfulness is not only its own reward, but the delight of every one else.

Because Helen Straub,

Who serves me Coca-Cola

At Julie Eikerenkotter's,

Asked me to write

A "B. V. D." this issue,

And because Mrs. McSweeney

And several others

Flattered me by saying

They liked to read them,

I couldn't very well

Do anything else

Than write the column,

Although I have nothing

To write about.

I know you'll say,

As you read this far,

"If he hasn't anything

To write about

Why does he try?"

Well, you see, don't you,

How far I have gotten

Without saying anything?

But you will admit

That many, many times

You read a magazine,

And after its perusal

Lay it aside,

Wondering why on earth

Any sane editor

Would fill its pages

With the useless stuff

That fills it up.

Perhaps it is

They have nothing to say

And are just as silly

Wasting their time

Writing of nothing

As I am.

But in any event

I have filled the column

And kept my word

To Helen Straub.

I THANK YOU.

The new Victory Loan will amount to six billion dollars. Put your hand into your pocket and see how much of it is there.

The young woman recalls with feelings of intense patriotism that the government never placed any restrictions on face powder.

The man who before going into the army loved Shakespeare and Beethoven often finds now that Service and Sousa hit the right spots.

Perhaps the Senate thought they were inappropriate appropriation bills, and that is why they passed them up.

Spring has come. The birds and the wealthy are migrating from the south and the public at large is buying garden seeds.

The war used to be three thousand miles away—and now the President is!

Humidity after July 1: Absent in the United States. Extreme in Mexico.

President Wilson is tired of making history and wants to chronicle it instead.

The Yankee soldiers, we are told, have not been able to make acquaintance with the French dogs, because the dogs do not understand English. They pay no attention to a simple "Come here," but obey instantly when a Frenchman says "Venez-z-z ici."

The ex-Kaiser now states that he never desired war. Can it be that his memory is failing?

When the discharged soldiers realize that if they eat as much as they want at the present prices there will be nothing left for drink, they will probably endorse prohibition.

We must remember that the peace conference has had very little previous experience in making peace treaties.

The Russians are keeping Lent with no prospect of its ending at Easter.

And the cheapest and most plentiful things in Russia are Bolshevism and death.

Talk about keeping Lent, did you ever know anything that could do it better than an umbrella?

Dr. Hoover's prescription for Bolshevism: Half a pound of bread, half a pound of meat and a quart of tea taken three times daily.

If the weather conditions are favorable in 1919, it looks as if the United States would at least have wheat and wheat and more wheat.

Any one want a crown? There are several to be had in Europe for sale cheap.

A young man is rather proud of having gained forty pounds while in the army. But when he finds that he cannot crowd into the civilian suit that he was depending on, he is likely to change his point of view.

Remember every fly you see this time of year is a potential ancestor. If it lives until the last of August it will be the progenitor of millions. Swat it immediately, and so swat its million descendants.

If the peace conference quarrels where can we look for peace?

CHILDREN AIDED BY HEALTH SERVICE

COUNTY WELFARE AND PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE PROGRAM HELP FOR LITTLE ONES.

The regular meeting of the Welfare and Public Health Service of San Mateo county was held at the office of the association, 207 Second avenue, San Mateo, Wednesday, April 2, at 9:30 a. m.

The visiting nurse reported that 189 visits had been made during the month of March. Two children had been taken to a hospital for tonsillectomy, one for hernia, two for orthopedic work and two for diagnosis. One patient had been taken to an eye specialist and glasses had been furnished to her. Hospital care had been arranged for a patient ill with tuberculosis and another patient had been taken to the Sonoma State Home.

The report from the Daly City clinic (which is open every Tuesday morning) shows a daily average of 16 patients, 8 of whom came for dental treatment. The San Mateo dental clinic (which is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings) shows a daily average of 7 patients, and 7 patients have been treated by the Redwood City dentists. During the month there have been 38 treatments, 44 extractions, 20 cleanings and 68 fillings.

Under new business the question of establishing and maintaining a summer camp for undernourished and convalescent children was discussed. It was shown that many children who had had influenza were still below par physically and were in need of the advantages that such a camp would offer. The board unanimously voted that such a camp be established, and a committee was appointed to select a suitable place and to make the necessary arrangements for the opening of the camp as soon as possible.

The need of bathing facilities in Daly City has been felt for some time, and it was decided that the clinic in Daly City, which is equipped with a bathroom, be open every Friday and Saturday for children who wish to take advantage of this bath. Mrs. Catherine Greene of Daly City was appointed to take charge of this work.

The chairman announced that she had visited Miss Mary L. Cole, director of the Pacific division of the Bureau of Public Health Nursing of the American Red Cross, who because of the affiliation of the Welfare and Public Health Service with this bureau of the American Red Cross, is the supervisor of the work in San Mateo county. Miss Cole expressed great satisfaction at the work which the organization is doing, and at the progress that has been made. She also submitted for the consideration of the board a list of rules governing the nursing service. These rules were submitted to the board and were adopted as the rules to govern the nursing service of the Welfare and Public Health Service of San Mateo county.

PASSION WEEK SERVICES.

Services will be held in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church each evening during Passion week at 7:45 o'clock. The pastor will preach on the following themes:

Monday, April 14—"Jesus in Gethsemane."

Tuesday, April 15—"The Man Who Got His Price."

Wednesday, April 16—"The Collapse of Self-Confidence."

Thursday, April 17—"The Man Who Ran Past the Signal."

Friday, April 18—"The Supreme Sacrifice."

You are cordially invited to be present at these services.

MISS KATHLEEN R. HARRIS

Miss Kathleen R. Harris of America, so far as is known has served longer in the war than any other American nurse. Miss Harris sailed from New York in July, 1914, and was declared by England just two days before she embarked at Liverpool. Three months later she was in France with the British army and has been in active service ever since. She joined the American Red Cross in April, 1918.

MME. CREMER

Mme. Cremer, wife of Jonkheer J. T. Cremer, minister from the Netherlands to the United States, has proved a charming addition to the diplomatic circle of hostesses in Washington.

P. A. S. FRANKLIN

P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, represents the United States shipping board on the exports control committee.

Some folks' idea of a bargain is a 30-cent article, formerly priced at a dollar, which is marked down to 49 cents.

HERE'S HISTORY.

In 1853 the great powers of Europe, England, France, Austria, Prussia and Russia, pledged themselves to respect the integrity of Denmark and to join forces against any one of their number who should violate it. Eleven years later a change in interest impelled Prussia and Austria to make the raid on Denmark that resulted in their acquisition of Schleswig-Holstein. When the pinch came France did not feel sufficient interest to interfere and get into a war with her two powerful neighbors. England protested, but finally backed down. Russia, while greatly concerned, could not act alone.

There was a League of Nations that broke down under the first stress.

LOW RAILROAD RATES TO CALIFORNIA RESORTS

F. E. Batturs, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific railroads, has announced that the United States Railroad Administration had authorized the publication of low round-trip summer tourist fares to western resorts in the Sierras and Santa Cruz mountains, to Lake Tahoe, Yosemite Valley, Crater Lake, Yellowstone Park, Glacier Park, Grand Canyon, Shasta and Feather River regions and practically all other summer resorts to which it has been customary to sell summer tickets in the past.

The sales dates will be May 30 to September 30, inclusive, except fifteen-day tickets will be sold on Friday and Saturday. There will be two general classes of fares: For tickets limited to three months from date of sale, carriers under Federal control will make a reduction of 20 per cent from double the one-way fare; and for the fifteen-day tickets sold on Friday and Saturday, the reduction will be one-third. Fifteen-day tickets will not be sold to points more distant than four hundred miles.

THOSE LIBERTY BONDS

There is a lot of money being spent every day in advertising with the object of separating plain Mr. American from his Liberty Bonds either by offers to buy them outright or trading in wildcat stock for them. Many plain Mr. Americans are rushing in where wise men fear to tread and are "falling" for the advertisements without thought of why the other fellow wants the bonds.

Advertising, especially the kind Liberty Bond brokers are using, costs a lot of money. Where does the buyer get off? Well, be sure he is getting off else he wouldn't advertise. He isn't in business for his health. He is after the money. It's a cinch you are helping him to a big take-off when you trade or sell your Liberty Bonds. That's sense, isn't it?

If a Liberty Bond is worth, say, $95 to the broker after he has paid for all of his expensive advertising, it certainly is worth par or more than par to the holder. For on top of his advertising expenses the broker maintains costly offices and much help. That's sense, isn't it?

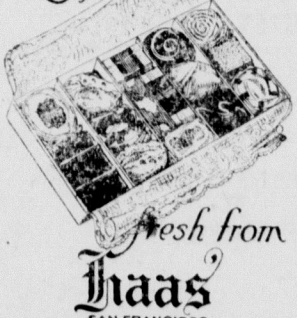

The reason the broker wants the bonds is that he or his clients want to hold them. It's the broker's business to know bond values. He knows that these Liberty Bonds are going to be valuable things—that they are going way above par—within a year or two. Hold them yourself.

Women to Be Cops.

When the civil service commission of Dayton, O., held its examination recently there were six women who took the examination to be policemen. The commission has held that women are eligible to serve, and it may be but a short time when women cops are found pacing the beats in Dayton. It is said that there are some "Amazons" among the applicants.

HAS SURPRISE FOR DR. NORTHCOTT, SAYS SWART

District Attorney Swart on Wednesday night questioned the sincerity of the offer of the defense in the Reed case to produce Frances Cronin at any time.

"I asked McPike if he could find her in the afternoon," Swart said. "He said he could not. I asked if the witness could be produced by Friday afternoon. McPike said he didn't know."

"We shall oppose to the limit any attempt to obtain a further continuance of the case. There is no reason for delay. And after the preliminary hearing there will be additional arrests, possibly."

"The State has obtained new evidence against Northcott. Witnesses he doesn't expect will face him next Monday."

"I noted that during the proceedings this morning Northcott could not take his eyes from a package carried by Detective James Gallagher. That package contains a surprise for the doctor."

STEAL ICE CREAM; REPENT

"Generosity" of Four Boys in Placing $8 in Contribution Box Is Explained.

Georgetown, Del.—The "generosity" of four boys in placing $8 in the collection plate at the local Presbyterian church on a recent Sunday caused comment. Ice cream was the answer.

The boys had stolen the ice cream, which was purchased for the Ladies' aid, from the back porch of one of the members. Detective work led to the arrest of the youngsters, who were let off with a lecture, payment of the costs and instructions to contribute $2 each to the church fund.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Raymond Spangler.)

Inclement weather on Saturday last deterred a number from attending the annual hike, but the few who came ready to go regardless of the bad weather started for the lakes with their lunches and had a good time. Miss Wilkinson chaperoned the party.

The baseball spring fever germ is spreading among the boys at the local Hi, and although no line-up has been announced it is expected that the regular team will be formed soon.

BURGLARS BUSY.

Three more homes in San Mateo were entered by burglars Tuesday. About 9:30 Tuesday morning a house at Fifth avenue and I street owned by Charles Alt was entered, but nothing of value was taken. At the same time the home of Mrs. Helen J. Knapp, sister-in-law of City Trustee Thomas J. Brady, at 112 Seventh avenue, was entered and a wrist watch stolen. The home of Mrs. Hugh McKenna, sister of Chief Burke, on South D street also was entered about the same time.

COBURN ESTATE SUED.

Dr. N. D. Morrison of San Mateo, through his attorneys, Ross & Ross, has filed a suit in the Superior Court against the executors of the estate of the late Loren Coburn, millionaire eccentric of Pescadero, for a $1000 medical bill for attending Coburn during his last illness.

MENLO GIRL DECORATED.

For heroic service rendered while under fire on the French front, Miss M. J. Roche, well-known Menlo Park girl and the daughter of David Roche, has been awarded the British ribbon of merit. With forty-five other nurses the young lady arrived last week from Brest. Miss Roche was one of the first American nurses to go across to go across after this country had declared war against Germany. She sailed at the same time that General Pershing did. She was a member of a party of twenty nurses forming a mobile unit, which was under fire in the Argonne battle on September 4.

Miss Roche with eighty-two other nurses came home on the Heredia. Before leaving England they were the guests of King George and Queen Mary.

JUDGMENT SUSTAINED.

Judge Buck has sustained the judgment rendered by Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin in the damage suit of F. C. Danz vs. Dr. G. R. Langer. Justice Griffin on February 3 last awarded Danz $64 for damages to his automobile resulting from a collision with the machine of Dr. Langer. The defendant appealed the case to the Superior Court.

EXPRESS CO. GETS PERMIT TO OPERATE DOWN PENINSULA

The Railroad Commission has granted to the San Francisco and San Jose Express Company a permit to operate an auto freight and express service between San Francisco and San Jose. The application was opposed by the Gibson Express, which operates in this field, on the ground that the Gibson people were able to take care of all the hauling between these points. Testimony taken at the public hearing, however, showed that the shippers of both cities were in favor of additional service. The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce also favored the establishment of a new line.

The new company has obtained permits from the supervisors of Santa Clara and San Mateo counties and the necessary concessions from the trustees of San Jose, Palo Alto, Daly City, San Mateo, Burlingame, Redwood City, San Bruno, South San Francisco, Mayfield, Mountain View, Santa Clara and Sunnyvale.

VISITACION FOLKS TOLD TO GO HOME AND BE GOOD

The Washington and Sweet families of Visitacion Valley aired their domestic troubles before Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin in Redwood City Tuesday, when a charge of disturbing the peace against Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet and their son, Capp Sweet, was heard, the complaining witness being George Washington Jr., a youth about 18 years of age. After hearing the arguments on both sides, Judge Griffin dismissed the charge and told the members of the two families to return to their respective homes and try to get along as peaceful neighbors.

Final consummation of the deal for the purchase of the Peninsula Hotel by the San Mateo Sanitarium Company is reported.

The San Mateo Sanitarium Company proposes to convert it into the most modernly equipped sanitarium in the West, with Major Herbert W. Yemans, U. S. A., as chief medical director, and Frank G. Andrews as business manager.

The superior judge of San Mateo county will receive an increase in salary from $4000 to $5000 a year, according to the terms of Assembly bill No. 103, which was passed by the Assembly Saturday.

HOUSE OF MYSTERY DRAWS CURIOUS CROWD

All day Sunday the house at 615 Highland avenue, San Mateo, where Inez Elizabeth Reed is said to have met her death, was an object of interest with morbid curiosity seekers. An almost endless procession of curious men and women passed back and forth in front of the "mystery house" all day.

DOUGHBOYS GET BIG SENDOFF FROM RED CROSS

Through the port of Bordeaux and along the mile-long Yankee pier at Bassens, over 75,000 American doughboys have passed homeward-bound since the signing of the armistice. Every one of these soldier lads has received free all the sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee he could put away; a chintz bag, freighted with cigarettes, chocolate, shaving soap and perhaps a pipe or deck of playing cards, and finally a handshake and "bon voyage" from an American girl canteen worker in the service of the American Red Cross.

The fatal gift of beauty sometimes looks as though it has been bought at the drug store.

FOUR-YEAR TERM FOR CLERKS AND TREASURERS

Clerks and treasurers of the cities of the sixth class will hold office hereafter for four years instead of two. This was made possible by the signing of the bill by Governor Stephens on Friday last. The bill was introduced in the Assembly by F. L. Ekwand, representing San Mateo county from the Forty-second Assembly District.

At three previous sessions of the legislature this bill was presented, but failed to pass.

OVERDONE.

Efficiency is an admirable quality, but it can be overdone, according to Representative M. Clyde Kelly of Pennsylvania. "Last election day," Mr. Kelly explains, "the city editor of my newspaper in Braddock sent his reporter out to learn if the saloons were open in defiance of the law. Four days later he returned and reported, 'They were.'"

SELLS TO MINORS.

Carl Merkel, proprietor of a cigar store and barber shop at B street and Second avenue, San Mateo, will appear before City Judge Charles M. Morse of San Mateo next Monday morning at 10 o'clock for hearing on a charge of selling tobacco to a minor in violation of the State law.

HAVE YOUR SON JOIN BOY SCOUTS

EST FACTORS IN BUILDING
CHARACTER.

A Scout! He enjoys a hike through the woods more than he does a walk over the city's streets. Over his campfire, what a breakfast, dinner or supper he can prepare out there in the open! Does he enjoy the meal? Just watch him and compare his appetite with that of a boy who lounges at a lunch counter in a crowded city.

A Scout does not run away or call for help when an accident occurs. He devotes all his strength and energy to assisting those who are in need.

A Scout can talk to a brother Scout without making a sound by signalling with flags; or by tapping on a log he can imitate the click of a telegraph key, and in either manner he can spell out words and sentences.

A Scout can tie a knot that will hold, he can climb a tree the ascent of which seems impossible to others, he can swim a river, he can patch a tent, he can mend a tear in his trousers, he can tell you what weeds are poisonous and what are not, he can sight nut-bearing trees from a distance; if living near ocean or lake he can reef a sail or take his trick at the wheel, and, if near any body of water at all he can pull an oar or use paddles and sculls; in the woods he knows the names of birds and animals; in the water he tells you the different varieties of fish.

A Scout is kind to everything that lives. He knows that horses, dogs and cats have their rights and he respects them. A Scout prides himself upon doing kind deeds and no day in his life is complete unless he has been of aid to some person. A Scout is quick of eye, quick of hearing, and his muscles are well developed. In other words, a Scout is natural, and the better a Scout the further away he is from the artificial.

To become a Scout a boy must be at least 12 years old. Application for membership should be made to Scout Master Rev. Daniel Stevens.

LIFE SAVINGS LEFT TO RED CROSS

CHOREMAN ON MURRAY RANCH
WILLS $650 TO RELIEF ORGAN-IZATION.

George Palmer, a choreman on the B. C. Murray ranch at Beresford, who died suddenly on the ranch recently, left his entire life savings, amounting to $650, to the American Red Cross, according to the provisions of his will, which was filed for probate in Redwood City on Tuesday.

A petition which accompanied the will was signed by Mrs. Caro Crockett Scott, and asked that the $650 savings account of Palmer be transferred to the San Mateo county Red Cross chapter for use by that organization. Palmer was 75 years of age. The will, dated October 30, 1918, was witnessed by Mrs. L. M. Murray and Mrs. Carrie M. Jury of San Mateo.

Palmer was found dead in his cabin at the ranch one morning, having died from heart failure during the night.

YOUNGSTER WINS LEGION OF HONOR

SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD U. S. MA-
RINE DECORATED BY FRENCH GOVERNMENT.

San Francisco, April 10.—Sergeant Gordon R. O'Neill, M. C., who will tour Northern California with the Victory Liberty Loan trophy train, is said to be the youngest American to receive a decoration on the battlefields of France.

O'Neill is one of the marines who took part in the famous drive at Chateau Thierry. It was here that he was disabled, and here also that he won the Legion of Honor from the French government.

O'Neill was but 17 years old when he heard the call to arms. He was too young to enlist for service in the infantry, so he went as a trumpeter. In this capacity he arrived at Verdun. When the Americans had lost a large number of snipers, the boy was given the opportunity he wished and as a volunteer sharpshooter he went to Chateau Thierry.

It was while sniping from a shell hole following the drive which pushed the Germans back from Paris that he was wounded for the second time and was incapacitated. So accurate was his marksmanship that the Germans shelled his position and finally reached him. For eleven hours he lay unconscious in No-Man's Land. As a result of his injuries he has suffered paralysis in his left shoulder and arm, but he has lost none of the vim and fire that made him a good marine.

O'Neill is one of a number of veteran fighters who will be with the trophy train.

Eugene, Mazie, Francis and Agnes Jennings have been transferred from the Visitation schools and on Thursday commenced their school work in the South San Francisco Grammar School. They are the children of the proprietor of Jennings' Pharmacy here.

SAN BRUNO NOTES

Application has been made for a meeting to be held at Edgemont School next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Subjects to be discussed will be in the line of child welfare, moral uplift, education and enforcement of law and order. Interesting speakers will be present and everybody interested in the welfare of the community is invited to be present.

The meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association held at the Edgemont School last Friday was very well attended, a large percentage of the teachers being present, and all took a very decided interest in the work of the association. Mrs. Aiken, district chairman, and Mrs. Godfrey, county chairman, gave most interesting talks on the work of the association. Mr. Grundy sang in such an acceptable manner as to be enthusiastically recalled. The application was signed for union with the National Federation. All mothers are considered members of the association. A nominal fee of 50 cents is charged for dues, although payment is optional. Twenty-one have paid dues. Everybody is requested to be at the next meeting, to be held next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McFarland are the proud possessors of a baby girl, who arrived Thursday.

Mrs. A. Laumeister left for Albuquerque, New Mexico, on Monday, where Mr. Laumeister is in a sanitarium.

RETURNED HERO GIVEN JOB BY SUPERVISORS

Sergeant William Waddell, a San Bruno boy, who distinguished himself in the battle of the Argonne Forest, in which engagement he was wounded in the hand, and who was recommended by Supervisor Thomas Hickey for a county job, is now driving the county motor truck which is used in county road repair work.

Sergeant Waddell was mentioned for bravery in rescuing a comrade named Schaeffer from the battlefield under fire, when Schaeffer had both legs blown off by shell fire.

SAN BRUNO TRUSTEES TO GIVE BABY PRIZES

The weighing and measuring drive for all children under 6 years of age will be held in San Bruno during the third week of April.

Mrs. Emelie Haley is the chairman for San Bruno and Dr. Smith will have charge of the physical examination, which will be at the Boys' and Girls' Recreation Center in the Girl Scouts' section.

A prize will be given by the San Bruno Town Trustees to the first perfect boy baby and one to the first 100 per cent girl baby.

Mrs. Haley earnestly asks all the mothers of children under 6 years of age to bring them to be weighed and measured. This drive is national and not State work.

The pre-school age is emphasized as the age to be helped. The lesson of the result of physical examination for the draft, and the elimination of 35 per cent of our men from 21 to 31 years of age, must come to every mother. Many of these physical defects began in young childhood and by better care could have been prevented.

Mrs. Haley has appointed the following women to aid in the work of the drive: Mesdames W. Flynn, W. Holliday, H. S. Smith, R. Crier, A. Cotter, L. H. Tracter, F. B. Zanette, C. J. Dunlap, J. J. Ledwith, M. Leddy, W. E. Augsburg, J. Cristy, H. Palmer, W. Muller, W. E. Fuller and Miss Nettie Willets.

Mrs. David E. Graham, the San Mateo county chairman for the Children's Year program, has appointed a chairman in every town in the county to help in the carrying out of the work of the Children's Year program, which is issued by the Children's Bureau, Department of Labor, Washington.

Part of the program is:

A year's campaign on better birth registration.

A more intelligent use of our clean milk laws.

The establishment of children's health centers.

A permanent community public health nurse.

To gather together data which will help in the understanding of the relation of the family budget and good health in our State.

INSTINCT SAVED DUMB ANIMALS FROM GAS

Germans, cooties, mud and rats—were the four most obnoxious things the American fighting man found overseas, according to Frank W. Ryan, a Y. M. C. A. war worker who accompanied the Ninety-first division into the Argonne as an athletic director.

"I have been asked many times why the deadly gas didn't kill the rats and other animals when it was destructive to humans," said Ryan recently. "I have seen birds flying through the air without taking any notice of the artillery fire; rats by the thousand and stray dogs and cats feeding upon heaps of waste. All of a sudden the birds would fly to the rear, the rats would disappear as if by magic and cats and dogs find safe hiding places. By the time the bugler had sounded the warning signal most of us had our masks adjusted. Thus nature took care of the dumb, and I never saw it fail."
